

Open Streets TO Map and Programming Guide

August 21, 2022

BLOOR ST.

Bloor & Euclid

Jumpstations Rope Skipping Team: Jump rope demos and workshops

Canadian Fire Truck Company: Visit a real pumper fire truck replete with all gear and equipment; interact with real firefighters; and children able to climb in / on the fire truck

City of Labyrinths Project: Creating temporary public labyrinths in chalk

Bloor & Howland

Sweet Pete's Bike Shop: Maintenance demos (e.g., "How to fix a flat", "How to clean your drive train"); bike and ebike test drives

Street Musician: Mo Guzman

Toronto Fire Services: Fire safety lessons

Ahimsa Dance Troup: Yoga classes

Abanico Dance Group: Dance demos and workshops

Sidewalk Chalk

Bloor & Devonshire Place

Asianploitation: Improv workshops, mini sets, games

Mosaic Home Care: Community table talks, free blood pressure clinic, access to community resources

Dogora: Dog games, apparel

Guardian's Best Animal Rescue Foundation: Animal rescue awareness

Pink Titans Robotics: Robot demos, workshops

Urban Expeditions: Experiential game requiring urban travel and strategic play

Yonge & Bloor

Hong Luk Kung Fu Club: Lion dancing, drumming, martial arts; demos and workshops

Bike Decoration Station: Pretty up your "ride" before you go on your way

Roller Skate Toronto: Free skate area, demos, DJ

Yonge & Grosvenor

Central YMCA: Fitness classes, demos, family activities, basketball, etc.

Yonge4All: Campaigning to make Yonge Street Pilot Improvements permanent

CycleTO: Pop up bike repair station

Church Wellesley Neighbourhood Association: Group skipping demos, workshops

Sidewalk Chalk

Yonge & Dundas

City of Toronto's Parks Division, Come Alive Outside: Green Street "Pop Up Park" (4,000 square feet of grass on Yonge) featuring free, unstructured play areas and outdoor themed fun activations; participate in a Yoga / Pilates class, courtesy of Sweat and Tonic

Yonge & Shuter

Downtown Yonge BIA: Giant games, Muskoka chairs

Sweat and Tonic: Dance session with Mariah Amber (1:15 to 1:45pm)

Sidewalk Chalk

Presented by
DOWNTOWN

